Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 4, 2022, Adaptimmune Therapeutics plc (the “Company”) announced the appointment of Dr. Joanna Brewer as Chief Scientific Officer (“CSO”) effective as of May 4, 2022.

On May 4, 2022, Dr. Brewer entered into an employment agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) with the Company’s U.K. subsidiary that sets forth the terms and conditions under which Dr. Brewer will serve as CSO. Under the terms of the Employment Agreement effective May 4, 2022, Dr. Brewer will receive an annual base salary of $388,120, which may be modified by the Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors in its sole discretion. The remuneration for the CSO, a U.K. resident, will be set and paid in pounds sterling. For the purpose of this Form 8-K, the base salary of £310,000 has been translated into U.S. dollars based on an exchange rate of $1.2520 to £1.

Dr. Brewer will also be eligible to receive an annual discretionary bonus, determined by the Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors following the end of each calendar year that ends during her employment period where she serves as CSO (“Annual Bonus”), subject to: (i) objective criteria set forth by the Board of Directors or an authorized delegate thereof on an annual basis; and (ii) the overall performance of the Group. The initial target Annual Bonus effective from May 4, 2022 will be forty-five percent of Dr. Brewer’s base salary. The Annual Bonus payment will be pro-rated for any partial year of service.

Dr. Brewer will be eligible to participate in the equity plans sponsored and/or maintained by the Company and its affiliates from time to time, in accordance with the terms of any such plans, at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company and the Board of Directors. On or around May 4, 2022, or such other date as the Board of Directors may determine and subject to the rules of the relevant equity plan and any applicable legal or regulatory requirements, Dr. Brewer will be awarded 333,792 market value options to acquire ordinary shares in the Company and 223,512 nominal cost options to acquire ordinary shares in the Company on condition that, at the time of the award of such stock options, Dr. Brewer continues to serve as the Company’s CSO and remains employed by the Company and is not under notice of termination (whether given by the Company or Dr. Brewer). The options will vest over a period of four years from the date of grant. The market value options will have an exercise price per ordinary share of not less than one sixth of the closing trading price of the Company’s American Depositary Shares on the last business day prior to the date of grant, translated from USD to GBP, and the nominal cost options will have an exercise price of £0.001 per ordinary share. Dr. Brewer will also be entitled to additional employee benefits.

The employment may be terminated by either party giving no less than nine months’ written notice. In addition, the Company may terminate the Employment Agreement immediately by notice if Dr. Brewer (i) commits a material breach under the agreement, (ii) is guilty of conduct tending to bring her or the company into disrepute, (iii) becomes bankrupt, (iv) fails to perform her duties to a satisfactory standard, or (v) is convicted of an offence under any statutory enactment or regulation (including the criminal offence of insider dealing under the Criminal Justice Act 1993 or any similar conviction in the United States, but excluding a motoring offence for which no custodial sentence is given).

In the event of a termination of employment by the Company without cause or a resignation by Dr. Brewer for good reason, upon a change of control, any portion of stock option awards that were granted and invested as of the date of termination will vest and immediately become exercisable on the date of termination. Dr. Brewer will also be entitled to payments under her Employment Agreement and the Company’s executive severance policy in the event of a termination by the Company without cause or a resignation by Dr. Brewer for good reason without a change of control and upon a change of control. In order to receive severance benefits under the Employment Agreement and policy, Dr. Brewer is required to execute a release of claims in favor of the Company and comply with certain other post-employment covenants set forth in the Employment Agreement. The Employment Agreement also contains non-solicitation and non-competition provisions for a twelve month period as well as standard confidentiality provisions.

Most recently, Dr. Brewer served as Senior Vice President, Allogeneic Research at Adaptimmune since December 2019. In this role, she built the Allogeneic Research organization from the ground up and took the concept of iPSC-derived allogeneic T-cell therapies from an idea into the potential for an allogeneic candidate in the clinic. Prior to her SVP role, Dr. Brewer held a series of senior managerial roles within Adaptimmune’s research organization. Her experience in immunotherapy and cell therapy at Adaptimmune and its predecessor companies spans more than 20 years and includes roles across the breadth of discovery. Before focussing solely on the allogeneic platform for the last three years, Dr. Brewer was one of the founding scientists at Adaptimmune who built multiple research teams working on the development of SPEAR T-cell therapies including NY-ESO (transitioned to GSK in 2018), ADP-A2M4 and ADP-A2AFP, as well as early next-generation approaches including the ADP-A2M4CD8 construct.

Prior to joining Adaptimmune in 2009, Dr. Brewer held positions at Avidex, Medigene, and Immunocore. She holds a master's degree in Natural Sciences, and a Ph.D. in cellular signalling, both from the University of Cambridge, U.K.

There are no family relationships between Dr. Brewer and any director or executive officer of the Company, and the Company has not entered into any transactions with Dr. Brewer that are reportable pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K. Except as described above, there are no arrangements or understandings between Dr. Brewer and any other persons pursuant to which she was selected as CSO.

The foregoing summary of the Employment Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Employment Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

2. APPOINTMENT

The Company shall employ the Executive and the Executive agrees to serve as Chief Scientific Officer of Adaptimmune Therapeutics plc ("AT plc") on and subject to the terms and conditions in this Agreement.

3. DURATION AND WARRANTIES

- 3.1 The Employment shall commence on 4 May 2022 (the "Commencement Date"). The Executive will not be subject to a probationary period. Subject to clause 19, the Employment shall continue until terminated by either party giving to the other not less than 9 months' notice in writing. - 3.2 The Company shall be entitled at its sole and absolute discretion lawfully to terminate the Executive's employment at any time and with immediate effect by written notification to the Executive and to pay within one month following the date of such termination a payment in lieu of notice ("PILON") to the Executive. The total PILON will be equal to the basic salary due under clause 6.1 which the Executive would have been entitled to receive under this Agreement during the notice period referred to at clause 3.1 (or, if notice has already been given, during the remainder of such notice period) subject to statutory deductions.
- 3.3 Notwithstanding clause 3.2, the Executive shall not be entitled to any PILON if the Company would otherwise have been entitled to terminate the Executive's employment without notice in accordance with clause 19.1. In that case the Company shall also be entitled to recover from the Executive any PILON already made.
- 3.4 The Executive represents and warrants that, in entering into and performing her duties under this Agreement:
- 3.4.1 she is not subject to any restriction that might hinder or prevent her from performing any of her duties in full;
 - 3.4.2 she will not be in breach of any other contract of employment or any other obligation to any third party; and
 - 3.4.3 this Employment is and shall remain her sole and exclusive employment.
- 3.5 The Executive further warrants that she has no unspent criminal convictions.

4. SCOPE OF THE EMPLOYMENT

- 4.1 Save as specifically agreed with the Chief Executive Officer and the AT plc Board in respect of her obligations under clause 14.1, the Executive shall:
- 4.1.1 devote the whole of her time, attention, ability and skills to her duties;
 - 4.1.2 faithfully and diligently perform such duties and exercise such powers consistent with her position as may from time to time be assigned to or vested in her by the Board;

- 4.1.3 obey all reasonable and lawful directions of the Board;
 - 4.1.4 comply with the Company's rules, regulations, policies and procedures and with the policies and procedures of AT plc from time to time in force;
 - 4.1.5 comply with the rules of any securities or investment exchange or regulatory or governmental body to which any Group Company is subject from time to time (including the US Securities and Exchange Commission and the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers);
 - 4.1.6 promptly give the Company Secretary of AT plc such information as AT plc may require to enable it to comply with its legal obligations, or the requirements of Nasdaq or any other applicable stock exchange;
 - 4.1.7 comply, and will procure, so far as she is able, that her spouse or civil partner and dependent children (if any), or any trust in which she, her spouse or civil partner or dependent children may be concerned or interested in as trustee or beneficiary, will comply with any code of conduct relating to securities transactions by directors and specified employees applicable in the Company or to any Group Company;
 - 4.1.8 exercise her duties in compliance with the requirements of the Bribery Act 2010 and use all reasonable endeavours to assist the Company and any Group Company in preventing bribery from being conducted on its behalf in contravention of that Act;
 - 4.1.9 at all times act in the best interests of the Company and use her best endeavours to promote and protect the interests of the Company, any of its Group Companies and their employees;
 - 4.1.10 if requested to do so, keep the Board and/or the AT plc Board, as applicable, at all times promptly and fully informed (in writing if so requested) of her conduct of the business of the Company and any Group Company and provide such explanations in connection with such conduct as the Board and/or the AT plc Board may from time to time require; and
 - 4.1.11 act as a model for all other employees of the Group.
- 4.2 Subject to clause 4.3 the Company reserves the right to assign the Executive duties of a different nature on a permanent or temporary basis either in addition to or instead of those referred to in clause 4.1 above, it being understood that she will not be assigned duties which she cannot reasonably perform or which are inconsistent with her position and status.
- 4.3 During any period of notice of termination (whether given by the Company or the Executive), the Company shall be at liberty to assign the Executive such other duties consistent with her status, role and experience as the Company shall determine in its absolute discretion.

- 4.4 The Executive shall not, without the prior consent of the Chief Executive Officer:-
- 4.4.1 on behalf of the Company, incur any capital expenditure in excess of such sum as may be authorised from time to time; and
 - 4.4.2 on behalf of the Company, enter into any commitment, contract or arrangement otherwise than in the normal course of business or outside the scope of her normal duties, or of an unusual, onerous or long term nature.
- For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause prevents the Executive acting within any limits of authority or budgets agreed by the Board from time to time.
- 4.5 The Executive shall if and so long as the Company requires without further remuneration:
- 4.5.1 carry out her duties as instructed by the Company on behalf of any Group Company; and
 - 4.5.2 act as a director, officer or consultant of the Company and/or any Group Company.
- 4.6 The Executive confirms that she has disclosed to the Company all circumstances in respect of which there is, or there might be, a conflict or possible conflict of interest between the Company or any Group Company and the Executive and she agrees to disclose fully to the Company any such circumstances that might arise during the Employment. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes but is not limited to, disclosing to the Company any activity by a third party or the Executive herself which might reasonably be expected to harm the Company or its business.
- 4.7 The Executive shall disclose to the Chief Executive Officer any direct or indirect approach or solicitation by any Competitor or Potential Competitor intended to encourage her to terminate her employment.

5. HOURS AND PLACE OF WORK

- 5.1 The Executive agrees that her normal working hours shall be 9:00 am to 5:00 pm on Mondays to Fridays. These hours are variable as reasonably determined by the Executive, subject always to the Company's requirements and operational needs. However, the Executive may be required to work such other hours as may be reasonably necessary for the proper performance of her duties. Working such additional hours shall not entitle the Executive to additional remuneration.
- 5.2 The Executive agrees that the working time limits set out in Part II of the Regulations do not apply to the Employment.
- 5.3 The Executive's principal place of work will be in the Company's offices at Milton Park, Abingdon, or any such place within 30 miles of Oxford as the Company shall from time to time direct. The Executive will be given reasonable notice of any change in her place of work.

- 5.4 The Executive may be required to travel throughout the United Kingdom and overseas in the performance of her duties, although the Company does not currently anticipate that the Executive will be required to work outside the UK for any continuous period of more than one month.

6. REMUNERATION

- 6.1 The Company shall pay to the Executive a basic salary at the rate of £310,000 per annum, payable by equal monthly instalments in arrears, by credit transfer to a bank account nominated by the Executive on or around the last working day of each month. The salary payments will be subject to such deductions in respect of taxes and any other deductions as may from time to time be required by law and/or which are agreed by the Executive.
- 6.2 The Executive's salary will be reviewed annually by the Remuneration Committee of the AT plc Board in its absolute discretion in December of each year commencing from December 2022. Any increase in salary will take effect from 1 January each year commencing from 1 January 2023.
- 6.3 Subject always to the rules of the Company Share Option Scheme from time to time in force (the "Share Scheme") and to the Executive's eligibility to participate in the Share Scheme, the Executive may at the absolute discretion of the Company be entitled to share options under the Share Scheme. Where the Employment is terminated for whatever reason and whether or not in breach of contract she shall not be entitled, and by applying for an option the Executive shall be deemed irrevocably to have waived any entitlement, by way of compensation for loss of office or otherwise to any sum or other benefits to compensate her for the loss of any rights under the Share Scheme.
- 6.4 On or around 4 May 2022, or such other date as the AT plc Board may determine and subject to the rules of the Share Scheme and any applicable legal or regulatory requirements, the Executive shall be awarded 333,792 "market value" options to acquire ordinary shares in AT plc and 223,512 nominal cost options to acquire ordinary shares in AT plc on condition that, at the time of the award of such share options, the Executive continues to serve as the Chief Scientific Officer of AT plc and remains employed by the Company and is not under notice of termination (whether given by the Company or the Executive). The options shall vest over a period of four years from the date of grant. The market value options shall have an exercise price per ordinary share of not less than one sixth of the closing trading price of an American Depositary Share of AT plc on the last business day prior to the date of grant, translated from USD to GBP, and the nominal cost options shall have an exercise price of £0.001 per ordinary share.

7. PENSION AND OTHER BENEFITS

- 7.1 The Company will comply with the employer pension duties in respect of the Executive in accordance with Part 1 of the Pensions Act 2008. The Executive will be entitled to participate as a member of the Company's Group Personal Pension Scheme (the "Company Pension Scheme"), subject always to the rules of the scheme from time to time.

- 7.2 The Company reserves the right to vary the benefits payable under the Company Pension Scheme or, terminate, or substitute another pension scheme for the existing Company Pension Scheme at any time.
- 7.3 The Company Pension Scheme is not a contracted-out scheme for the purpose of the Pensions Schemes Act 1993.
- 7.4 The Executive shall be eligible to participate in the private health care scheme and permanent health insurance schemes which the Company may maintain for the benefit of its senior executives (the "Schemes") subject to the rules of the Schemes and the terms of any related policy of insurance from time to time in force. This is for information only and should not be regarded as any guarantee of benefits which may be paid under the Schemes.
- 7.5 The Company reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to change the Schemes providers, to amend the terms of the Schemes (including but not limited to the level of benefits), to terminate the Schemes without replacement, to substitute another scheme for either of the Schemes and to remove the Executive from membership of either or both Schemes.
- 7.6 The Company shall be under no obligation to make any payment under either Scheme to the Executive unless and until it has received the relevant payment from the Scheme's provider. If any Scheme provider refuses for any reason (whether based on its own interpretation of the terms of the insurance policy or otherwise) to provide any benefits to the Executive, the Company shall not be liable to provide replacement benefits itself or any compensation in lieu and shall be under no obligation to pursue a claim for unpaid benefits on behalf of the Executive against the Schemes' provider.
- 7.7 The Company reserves the right to terminate the Executive's employment, where it has good cause to do so (including but not limited to where the Executive is redundant or has committed misconduct), notwithstanding that the Executive is receiving benefits under either Scheme and that such termination may result in those benefits being discontinued. The Executive agrees that she shall have no claim against the Company for damages in respect of the loss of benefits under either Scheme in such circumstances.
- 7.8 In the event that the Executive is absent by reason of ill-health she will continue to co-operate with and act in good faith towards the Company including but not limited to staying in regular contact with the Company and providing it with such information about her health, prognosis and progress as the Company may require.
- 7.9 In accordance with the current rules of each Scheme, participation in either Scheme is subject to the condition that the Executive has notified the Company on or before the commencement of the Employment of any pre-existing medical conditions that she may have.
- 7.10 If the Executive is receiving benefits under either Scheme the Company shall be entitled to appoint a replacement to perform all or any of the Executive's duties on either a temporary or permanent basis.
- 7.11 The Executive is not entitled to any benefits during her employment save as detailed in this Agreement or as notified to the Executive from time to time.

- 7.12 The Executive may be eligible to take the following types of paid leave, subject to any statutory eligibility requirements or conditions and the Company's rules applicable to each type of leave in force from time to time: (a) statutory maternity leave; (b) statutory paternity leave; (c) statutory adoption leave; and (d) shared parental leave. Further details of such leave and the pay during such leave are available from HR. The Company may replace, amend or withdraw the Company's policy on any of the above types of leave at any time.

8. BONUS

- 8.1 Subject to the terms of the AT plc executive severance policy in force from time to time (the "Executive Severance Policy"), the Executive will be eligible to receive a bonus, determined by the Remuneration Committee of the AT plc Board, following the end of each calendar year that ends during the Employment ("Annual Bonus"), subject to: (i) objective criteria set forth by the AT plc Board or an authorised delegate thereof on an annual basis; and (ii) the overall performance of the Group.
- 8.2 The initial target Annual Bonus with effect from 4 May 2022 shall be forty-five percent (45%) of the Executive's basic salary. The Annual Bonus shall be pro-rated for any part year of employment not worked by the Executive and paid in a single lump sum no later than 15 March of the year following the calendar year in which the Annual Bonus, if any, was earned. For clarity, any Annual Bonus payment made to the Executive shall be purely discretionary and shall not form part of the Executive's contractual remuneration under this Agreement.
- 8.3 The first review of the target Annual Bonus percentage will occur in January 2023 and thereafter the target Annual Bonus percentage shall be reviewed on an annual basis. If the Company makes an Annual Bonus payment to the Executive in respect of a particular calendar year, it shall not be obliged to make subsequent Annual Bonus payments in respect of subsequent calendar years.
- 8.4 The Executive must be employed by the Company on 31 December of the calendar year on which the bonus is based in order to be eligible to receive the Annual Bonus. Any Annual Bonus payments shall be paid to the Executive less applicable deductions in respect of taxes and any other deductions as required by law. Nothing in this Agreement will preclude the AT plc Board from changing or altering the objective criteria referred to in clause 8.1, in whole or in part, in the AT plc Board's absolute discretion.

9. SEVERANCE POLICY

The Executive Severance Policy in force from time to time shall apply to the Executive in relation to the Employment. Such policy may be amended or terminated in accordance with the terms of the policy, save that where any proposed amendment or termination substantially reduces the rights of the Executive following her termination of employment: (i) the Company will consult with the Executive on such proposed amendment or termination; and (ii) any such substantial reduction in the rights or benefits of the Executive must be agreed with the Executive. Where, following consultation, the Executive does not agree to any such proposed amendment or termination, then the Executive Severance Policy shall continue in full force and effect without such proposed amendment or termination.

10. EXPENSES

The Company shall reimburse the Executive in respect of all expenses reasonably incurred by her in the proper performance of her duties, subject to the Executive providing such receipts or other evidence that the Company may require.

11. HOLIDAY

- 11.1 The Executive shall be entitled to receive her normal remuneration for all bank and public holidays normally observed in England and a further 28 working days holiday in each holiday year, being the period from 1 January to 31 December.
- 11.2 In the holiday year in which the Employment terminates, the Executive's entitlement to holiday shall accrue on a pro-rata basis for each complete month of service during that year.
- 11.3 If, on the termination of the Employment, the Executive has exceeded her accrued holiday entitlement, the excess may be deducted from any sums due to her. If the Executive has any unused holiday entitlement, the Company may either require the Executive to take such unused holiday during any notice period or accept payment in lieu. Any payment in lieu shall only be made in respect of holiday accrued in accordance with clause 11.2 above during the Executive's final holiday year and the Executive shall be deemed to have taken her statutory holiday first, during that year.
- 11.4 The Executive may carry forward to the following calendar year up to 5 days' unused holiday entitlement but she must take any holiday which is carried over before the end of April in that year.

12. INCAPACITY

- 12.1 Subject to the Executive's compliance with the Company's rules from time to time in force regarding sickness notification and doctor's certificates, and subject to the Company's right to terminate the Employment for any reason including without limitation incapacity, if the Executive is at any time absent on medical grounds the Company shall pay to the Executive in each calendar year her normal basic salary for a maximum of 13 weeks, followed by a further period of 13 weeks at half her normal basic salary ("Company Sick Pay").
- 12.2 The Company reserves the right to require the Executive to undergo a medical examination by a doctor or consultant nominated by it, at any time including at any stage of absence at the Company's expense, and the Executive agrees that she will undergo any requisite tests and examinations and will fully co-operate with the relevant medical practitioner and shall authorise her or her to disclose to and discuss with the Company the results of any examination and any matters which arise from it.
- 12.3 Payment of Company Sick Pay to the Executive pursuant to clause 12.1 shall be inclusive of any Statutory Sick Pay and any Social Security Sickness Benefit or other benefits to which the Executive may be entitled, whether or not claimed.

- 12.5 Any actual or prospective entitlement to Company Sick Pay or private medical insurance or long term disability benefits shall not limit or prevent the Company from exercising its right to terminate the Employment in accordance with clauses 3.1 or 19 or otherwise and the Company shall not be liable for any loss arising from such termination.
- 12.6 If the Executive is prevented by incapacity from properly performing her duties under this Agreement for a consecutive period of 30 working days the Board may appoint another person or persons to perform those duties until such time as the Executive is able to resume fully the performance of her duties.

18. STATEMENTS

- 18.1 The Executive shall not make, publish (in any format) or otherwise communicate any derogatory statements, whether in writing or otherwise, at any time either during her Employment or at any time after its termination in relation to the Company, any Group Company or any of its or their officers or other personnel.

- 19.2 The Company reserves the right to suspend the Executive on full pay for so long as it may think fit in order to conduct any disciplinary investigation into any alleged acts or omissions by the Executive.

20. GARDEN LEAVE

During any period of notice of termination (whether given by the Company or the Executive), the Company shall be under no obligation to assign any duties to the Executive and shall be entitled to exclude her from its premises, and require the Executive not to contact any customers, suppliers or employees provided that this shall not affect the Executive's entitlement to receive her normal salary and contractual benefits. Adaptimmune Announces Appointment of Joanna Brewer as Chief Scientific Officer

PHILADELPHIA and OXFORDSHIRE, United Kingdom, May 4, 2022 -- Adaptimmune Therapeutics plc (Nasdaq:ADAP), a leader in T-cell therapy to treat cancer, today announces the appointment of Dr. Joanna (Jo) Brewer as Chief Scientific Officer (CSO) effective immediately.

“Jo Brewer is an exceptional scientific leader, and I am delighted that she has accepted the newly created CSO role, leading our ongoing scientific research, and developing future autologous and allogeneic therapies,” said Adrian Rawcliffe, Adaptimmune’s Chief Executive Officer. “Jo has a strong track record of building successful teams, driving innovation in cell therapy, as she worked on all of our autologous clinical programs and developed our allogeneic iPSC T-cell therapy platform. She has played a crucial role in our collaborations with Astellas and Genentech.”

Most recently, Dr. Brewer served as Senior Vice President, Allogeneic Research at Adaptimmune since December 2019. In this role, she built the Allogeneic Research organization from the ground up and took the concept of iPSC-derived allogeneic T-cell therapies from an idea into the potential for an allogeneic candidate in the clinic. Prior to her SVP role, Dr. Brewer held a series of senior managerial roles within Adaptimmune’s research organization. Her experience in immunotherapy and cell therapy at Adaptimmune and its predecessor companies spans more than 20 years and includes roles across the breadth of discovery. Before focussing solely on the allogeneic platform for the last three years, Dr. Brewer was one of the founding scientists at Adaptimmune who built multiple research teams working on the development of SPEAR T-cell therapies including NY-ESO (transitioned to GSK in 2018), ADP-A2M4 and ADP-A2AFP, as well as early next-generation approaches including the ADP-A2M4CD8 construct. Prior to joining Adaptimmune in 2009, Dr. Brewer held positions at Avidex, Medigene, and Immunocore. She holds a master’s degree in Natural Sciences, and a Ph.D. in cellular signalling, both from the University of Cambridge, U.K.
